Mórtas Mhúscraí - the Pride of Múscraí The Comharchumann has initiated a new scheme to support and give recognition to the local committees and groups who are already or would be interested in entering the 'Glór na nGael' and 'Tidy Towns' competitions. Among the elements of the scheme are:

- 1) Practical help in preparing work plans and entry forms for the Glór na nGael and Tidy Towns competitions.
- 2) Publication of a monthly newsletter to report on what's being done. First edition due to be published on 29 July. It will be available in local shops free of charge and can be downloaded from <http://www.imuscraí.com>
- 3) Posters & other material for local businesses, shops, pubs, to encourage the use of Irish and the upkeep of the area.
- 4) Prizes to be awarded to local committees based on their performances in the Glór na nGael/Tidy Towns in 2012.

Mórtas Mhúscraí arises from the consultation process which the Comharchumann carried out last year.

Féile na Laoch is fast approaching. The event will be held in Cúil Aodha/Baile Mhuirne on the August Bank Holiday weekend and has already been described by the Irish Times as 'one of the most extra-ordinary happenings of the summer'. Among the guests confirmed are Christy Moore, Glen Hansard, Martin Hayes, Louis Stewart, Mícheál Ó Muircheartaigh and many more. More information on the line up: <http://www.feilenalaoch.com>.

The organising committee would be very grateful for any assistance that can be offered by you. The committee are seeking people to offer voluntary accommodation for the guests at this free event and are also seeking people who would be interested in acting as stewards or being part of the construction/clean up crews. If you are interested in becoming involved, please contact: concubhar.oliathain@gmail.com or Tel: 026 65781/085 8130777
